

Cinema for Rutland

Thank you to those who have contributed to the success of Cinema for Rutland since 2015:

- all the shops, businesses, schools and churches in Oakham and surrounding areas who have displayed our posters and programmes
- Oakham Wines - our congenial and convenient ticket office
- Our volunteers who host the film nights, operate the bar, create and circulate publicity material
- Rutland County Council for the hire of the wonderful venue, and their staff, on film nights and behind the scenes
- Quoin Print for their reliable, excellent service, friendly help and advice and attention to detail
- and last, but by no means least, our loyal and cheerful audience.

STAN & OLLIE

Thursday 6 June 2019

Director: Jon S. Baird 1 hr 38 mins (PG)

With John C. Reilly and Steve Coogan

A tribute to the then famous but fading Hollywood comedy act, Laurel and Hardy, following their tour of theatres around the UK and Ireland in the 1950s. The film charts the surprisingly successful outcome and highlights the sensitive relationship between the two.

ALL IS TRUE

Thursday 4 July 2019

Director: Kenneth Branagh 1 hr 41 mins (PG-13)

With Kenneth Branagh, Judi Dench, Ian McKellen

A fictional story about William Shakespeare's life when, devastated by the fire that burned his beloved Globe Theatre in 1613, he returned home to Stratford, still mourning the death of his son and hoping to re-connect with his family after a long absence.

GREEN BOOK

Thursday 1 August 2019

Director: Peter Farrelly 2 hrs 10 mins (PG-13)

With Viggo Mortensen and Mahershala Ali

A true story about the unlikely friendship that developed between Dr Don Shirley, the world-class African-American pianist and his Italian-American driver on a tour to the Deep South in 1962 amidst a culture of discrimination and segregation.

ON THE BASIS OF SEX

Thursday 5 September 2019

Director: Mimi Leder 2 hrs (PG-13)

With Felicity Jones, Armie Hammer

An inspiring film based on the early professional life of the iconic US Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, a pioneer of gender equality, from her entry to Harvard Law where she was one of only nine women.
