

Ketton Showtime Press Release

Fri Oct 11

The fabulous local world roots band Paspatou will be playing on Friday October 11th at The Northwick Arms, Ketton. They create a unique and eclectic world music mix on a dazzling array of instruments, including fiddle, bouzouki, flutes, keyboards, whistles, saxes, drums and weird pieces of kitchen plumbing. They fuse traditional music from Eastern Europe, India, and Ireland ranging from the eccentric beats of Balkan dance music to sinuous Irish airs and Indian ragas. The 4-piece are festival regulars and have played at Glastonbury and Stamford's Riverside Festival. Graham Dale: flutes, sax, keyboards, homemade blowing things Graham Starkie; mandola, bass Miriam Forbes: violin. Jay Goldmark; guitar, bass, drums.

8 pm. £10. Advanced tickets 01780 720 521. Meal deal and show £20 pp. Pre-show meals 01780 720 238.
