➤ Introduction:

With the new DfE guidance being in place from September 2020, this guide provides you with information about our range of informal educational workshops which supports this ethos. As an external organisation we aim to enhance your delivery of these subjects, bringing in our specialist knowledge and different ways of engaging with young people.

➤ Workshops for young people:

Our workshops provides children and young people with a range of informal learning opportunities on a range of topics including: Self-Esteem & Body Image, SEND Aspirations, Protecting Your Online Image, and KUDOS – Careers Support.

Our workshops provide informal education opportunities to increase young people's knowledge and skills in dealing with a range of issues that affect young people today. We provide young people with the tools and resources to openly discuss a range of topics in a safe environment while providing useful links to other local services and support.

The content for this Offer was developed with the support from young people who live in Rutland and subjects were identified as key areas of concern which should be addressed.

➤ Who can access these Workshops?

Any child or young person aged between 11 and 18 years who either lives in or attends a school in Rutland.

➤ Mix and match workshops:

Workshops are designed to be mixed and matched so schools, colleges and groups can tailor to the needs of their young people. Secondary Schools can access up to 5 workshops per year. Please check the workshop details for group size before booking.

➤ Can't find what you're looking for?

If you are looking for a bespoke workshop or programme to meet specific needs of your young people please contact the team at Jules House to discuss how we can support this.

We can deliver bespoke programmes during school hours or arrange an after school club or activity. For example CSE group work, confidence building and developing life skills.
