UK TOUR JAN / FEB 2020

James and Ellen Wilson find themselves indulging in one dinner party - and one bottle of wine - too many. When supper talk turns from light and amusing to barbed and accusatory is it time for them to think about their alcohol intake? Observing all is Chloe, their teenage daughter, whose cello playing provides a live musical emotional barometer of the household.

"...humour, pathos and shock as you watch the drama unfold"

★★★★★
The Oxford Times

"a stunning piece of theatre"

Joanna Trollope

One hour straight through. Then each performance is followed by a Q&A session with guest professionals from Turning Point and other organisations
